Health department announces EARN Award winner

St. Johns- Each quarter, Mid-Michigan District Health Department (MMDHD) employees nominate co-workers who they feel go the extra mile and who are deserving of the Employees Achieving Recognized Notability (EARN) award.

MMDHD is pleased to announce that Laureen Simon, Public Health Representative II, based in the Clinton Branch Office, was chosen by her peers for the second quarter 2010/2011. Co-workers describe Laureen as someone who:

- Displays mutual respect
- Presents a professional image
- Takes ownership of problems
- Provides excellent customer service
- Is a team player and assists others
- Does more than expected
- Sets a good example for others

“Laureen knows the immunization program inside and out! She is very knowledgeable, always ready to answer any questions and willing to lead the health department in new situations,” said a co-worker. “She goes over and above, and I appreciate her guidance and patience with everything she does!”

MMDHD would like to express its gratitude to Laureen for going the extra mile and for a job well done!

Laureen Simon, Public Health Representative II
