Health Department recognized for being breastfeeding-friendly

Ithaca, Stanton, St. Johns- The Mid-Michigan District Health Department (MMDHD) was recently recognized by the Michigan Breastfeeding Network for being a breastfeeding-friendly workplace. MMDHD was awarded the silver level of achievement for its continued effort to support breastfeeding employees in the workplace. MMDHD was praised for its policy that provides breastfeeding employees a flexible schedule and a private location for breastfeeding or pumping for the first year after they give birth.

Shannon McKenney Shubert, Executive Director of the Michigan Breastfeeding Network, presented the award to MMDHD as a component of the “MIBreastfeeding-Friendly Business Project”, which aims to increase the number of Michigan businesses that comply with the federal breastfeeding accommodation law.

Mid-Michigan District Health Department serves the residents of Clinton, Gratiot and Montcalm Counties.
